

With access via VNC, network credentials can be edited and stored in Seahorse.

With X2Go access via connect with "Custom Desktop" Command: MATE , all these sections seem to be missing in Seahorse, and Caja seems requests a password for SMB access every time.

